

IMMIGRATION Canada

Applying for a Protected Person Status Document

Table of Contents

Contact Information .....	2
Overview .....	3
How to Complete Your Application.....	4
Document Checklist.....	6
Mailing Your Application.....	6
What Happens Next?.....	7

Forms:

- Application for a Protected Person Status Document (IMM 5521)
- Use of a Representative (IMM 5476)

This application is made available free of charge by Citizenship and Immigration Canada and is not to be sold to applicants.

Cette trousse est également disponible en français

Contact Information

Web site

For more information on the programs offered by Citizenship and Immigration Canada, visit our Web site at www.cic.gc.ca. For some types of applications you can inform us of a change of address and find out what is happening with your application through on-line services on the Web site.

Within Canada

If you are in Canada, you can also phone our Call Centre. An automated telephone service is available seven days a week, 24 hours a day and is easy to use if you have a touch-tone phone. You can listen to pre-recorded information on many programs, order application forms, and for some types of applications the automated service can even update you on the status of your case.

When you call, have a pen and paper ready to record the information you need. Listen carefully to the instructions and press the number for the selection you want. At any time during your call, you may press * (the star key) to repeat a message, 9 to return to the main menu, 0 to speak to an agent, or 8 to end your call. If you have a rotary phone, wait for an agent to answer your call.

If you need to speak to an agent, you must call Monday to Friday between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. local time.

---

From anywhere in Canada, call

1-888-242-2100 (toll-free)

---

Using a text telephone?

Call our TTY service from Monday to Friday between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. local time at: 1-888-576-8502 (toll-free).

Outside Canada

If you are outside Canada, you can contact a Canadian embassy, high commission or consulate. Consult our Web site for addresses, phone numbers and Web site addresses of our visa offices.

This is not a legal document. For legal information, refer to the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act and Regulations or the Citizenship Act and Regulations, as applicable.

This publication is available in alternative formats upon request.

Overview

---

The Protected Person Status Document is an official document issued by Citizenship and Immigration Canada which confirms a person's status in Canada as a protected person. In most circumstances, the letter of determination from the Immigration and Refugee Board or Citizenship and Immigration Canada is enough to prove your protected person status. However, you may still want to apply for a Protected Person Status Document.

This application kit explains the process for protected persons who want to apply for a Protected Person Status Document. It contains all of the necessary information, instructions, and application forms for you to complete and submit.

Are you a protected person?

You must already be a protected person in Canada to apply for a status document. The Immigration and Refugee Board (IRB) and Citizenship and Immigration Canada (CIC) decide who is a protected person. The IRB or CIC will have informed you of your status with a letter of determination. Protected persons are:

- persons who are determined by the IRB to be in need of protection,
- persons who are determined by the IRB to be Convention refugees,
- persons who received a positive Pre-Removal Risk Assessment (except for those described in section 112(3) of the Act),
- members of the Humanitarian-Protected Persons Abroad classes, or
- members of the Convention Refugees Abroad class.

Protected persons who are now permanent residents or citizens of Canada may apply for a travel document or a passport and do not require the status document to do so. Information on travel documents and passports can be obtained from the Passport Office. Look in the government blue pages of your phone book under "Passports" for contact information or visit www.passport.gc.ca.

Do each of your family members need a status document?

You may request a status document for any of your family members who are in Canada. Only family members who also have protected person status as described above are eligible for a Protected Person Status Document. Family members are defined as your spouse or common-law partner and your dependent children.

You and your family members must be in Canada to apply for a status document.

How to Complete Your Application

---

Use the following instructions to fill in the forms. Most of the questions on the forms are straightforward and extra instructions have only been provided when necessary. You must answer all questions. If you leave any sections blank, your application will be returned to you for completion and processing will be delayed. If any sections do not apply to you, answer “N/A” (not applicable). Print clearly with a black pen.

If the space provided on the forms is not sufficient, use an additional sheet of paper. There is space provided for three family members. If more than three family members require a status document, photocopy the form and answer all of the questions asked about your family members.

You must provide truthful, accurate information. The information provided may be verified. Processing will stop immediately if you give false or misleading information. It is an offence under section 127 of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act to knowingly make a false statement on this form.

Application for a Protected Person Status Document (IMM 5521)

Family and Given Names

Print your full family name (surname) and all of your given names (first, second or more) as they appear on your letter of determination from the IRB or CIC. Do not use initials. This is the name that will be printed on your Protected Person Status Document.

13. Determination of Protected Person Status

You can find the date and location of your determination in the letter from the IRB or CIC.

17. Photos

See Document Checklist for more details.

18. Family Members in Canada

List your family members in Canada who also require a Protected Person Status Document.

Relationship: Indicate whether the family member is your spouse, common-law partner, daughter, son, etc.

Marital status: Use one of the categories listed in question 9.

Declaration

If you do not sign the application, it will be returned to you.

Declaration of Interpreter

If the form has been interpreted for you either in whole or in part, the interpreter who assisted you should complete and sign this declaration. Answer all questions.

Use of a Representative (IMM 5476)

Complete this form if you are appointing a representative.

If you have dependent children aged 18 years or older, they are required to complete their own copy of this form if a representative is also conducting business on their behalf.

A representative is someone who has your permission to conduct business on your behalf with Citizenship and Immigration Canada. When you appoint a representative, you also authorize CIC to share information from your case file to this person.

You are not obliged to hire a representative. We treat everyone equally, whether they use the services of a representative or not. If you choose to hire a representative, your application will not be given special attention nor can you expect faster processing or a more favourable outcome.

The representative you appoint is authorized to represent you only on matters related to the application you submit with this form. You can appoint only one representative for each application you submit.

There are two types of representatives:

Unpaid representatives

- friends and family members who do not charge a fee for their advice and services
- organizations that do not charge a fee for providing immigration advice or assistance (such as a non-governmental or religious organization)
- consultants, lawyers and Québec notaries who do not, and will not, charge a fee to represent you

Paid representatives

If you want us to conduct business with a representative who is, or will be charging a fee to represent you, he or she must be authorized. Authorized representatives are:

- immigration consultants who are members in good standing of the Canadian Society of Immigration Consultants (CSIC)
- lawyers who are members in good standing of a Canadian provincial or territorial law society and students-at-law under their supervision
- notaries who are members in good standing of the Chambre des notaires du Québec and students-at-law under their supervision

If you appoint a paid representative who is not a member of one of these designated bodies, your application will be returned. For more information on using a representative, visit our Web site.

Section B.

5. Your representative's full name

If your representative is a member of CSIC, a law society or the Chambre des notaires du Québec, print his or her name as it appears on the organization's membership list.

8. Your representative's declaration

Your representative must sign to accept responsibility for conducting business on your behalf.

Section D.

10. Your declaration

By signing, you authorize us to complete your request for yourself and your dependent children under 18 years of age. If your spouse or common-law partner is included in this request, he or she must sign in the box provided.

Release of information to other individuals

To authorize CIC to release information from your case file to someone other than a representative, you will need to complete form Authority to Release Personal Information to a Designated Individual (IMM 5475) which is available on our Web site at www.cic.gc.ca/english/applications/release-info and from Canadian embassies, high commissions and consulates abroad.

The person you designate will be able to obtain information on your case file, such as the status of your application. However, he or she will not be able to conduct business on your behalf with CIC.

You must notify us if your representative's contact information changes or if you cancel the appointment of a representative.

Document Checklist

---

You MUST include the following documents in your application:

- Application for a Protected Person Status Document* (IMM 5521)
- Use of a Representative*, if applicable (IMM 5476)
- One recent passport photo of you and any family member applying for a status document. On the back of each photo, write the person's name and date of birth. Put the photo(s) in an envelope and staple it to the form. Do not staple the photo(s). Note: the photo will not appear on the final document.
- A photocopy of the letter from the Immigration and Refugee Board or Citizenship and Immigration Canada stating that you are a protected person or Convention refugee.

Mailing Your Application

---

Send your application, and the other items listed in the Document Checklist to the Case Processing Centre in Vegreville, in a 23 cm x 30.5 cm (9" x 12") envelope. Do not include a prepaid return envelope with your application. Address the envelope to:

Case Processing Centre
Vegreville AB
T9C 1W7

Clearly print your name and address at the top left-hand side of the envelope. The envelope will require more postage than a normal letter. To avoid having your application returned to you, have the post office weigh it before mailing.

What Happens Next?

---

Current processing times for this type of application are updated weekly on our Web site at: www.cic.gc.ca/english/department/times. During the processing of your application, you will receive a letter regarding your case and you will be informed if you need to take any further action. If your application for a status document has been approved, the document will be sent to you.

You should wait until after the processing times published on the Web site has elapsed before contacting the Call Centre to inquire about the status of your application.

The processing times are only applicable for applications that are completed correctly, signed, dated, and have all the necessary documents.

If you move, you must advise us of your new address by phoning the Call Centre. Failure to inform us of an address change may result in your application being refused or declared abandoned. You should also advise a Call Centre if you change your telephone or fax numbers.

Quality Assurance Program

Our quality assurance program randomly selects applications for a special review. If selected, you will be asked to attend an interview with a Citizenship and Immigration Canada official so that we can verify the documentation submitted is accurate, and that your application has been completed properly. All attempts will be made to conclude your case within service standards. You will be notified in writing should your application be chosen.