Everyone included in your application, whether accompanying you or not, will be required to undergo a medical exam with a physician on the list of designated doctors. This also includes children of whom you have joint custody even if the children usually live with the other parent and will not accompany you to Canada.

As soon as our office has confirmation that the sponsorship in your name has been accepted, we will send the medical instructions for you and your family members (if applicable).

The immigration visa has the same validity period as the medical results, that is, twelve months from the date of the first examination or test.
